Dear Fay/mio!!!

Happiest 21st B'day again, its not enough wishes even if I wish you a million times. I think I love your b'day more than mine, never thought I had it in me to love someone so deeply yet here I am and loving every second of it.

In this letter, I wanted to tell you a little about this project/site itself. It has quite a long atp. So, I start this project 45+ days before your b'day. I just made it password protected at first and got too comfortable until it was 30 days left. Made the front page banner and it was frustrating cause it wasn't doing what I wanted lmao. Around this period of time, I ask you your favourite color combo. THEN I'm busy with these stupid tests of college and I'm so burnt out. I couldn't do it until 15 days was left and mainly then I did it all. Idk if you noticed but I was waking up a lot at this time to work on this. It was 6 hours of work every session. In the "memories I adore section, I initially chose 218 images but reduced them. There was "future plans and goals" and its still there but I will most likely replace it with our watchlist because you can't save stuff on the site itself on this particular framework. Also the front page effect is that the text lights up when you move your cursor over it or you can just turn the lights on completely. Red spider lily cause they're your favourite! and please PLEASE listen to those songs!! I recorded the video just now.

I really haven't put this much thought and effort into anything or anyone else so I really hope you like it!

Yours Truly,

SPACE / SHUN!!!
